DAY 02

BEIJING - DATONG

Simple Breakfast | Lunch

- Yungang Grottoes - Originally known as Lingyan Temple and Stone Buddha Temple, the Yungang Grottoes were carved over approximately 150 years, spanning the Northern Wei, Eastern Wei, Western Wei, Northern Qi, Sui, and Tang dynasties. There are 45 main caves, 252 small niches, and over 59,000 stone carvings. It is a treasure in China's grotto art collection. (Includes electric vehicle)
- Ancient City Wall of Datong - Located in the city center, the city wall of Datong is one of the most well-preserved ancient city walls in China. The current wall was rebuilt by General Xu Da in the Ming Dynasty, based on the old Han, Wei, Tang, Liao, Jin, and Yuan city foundations.

Accommodation: Howard Johnson Jindi Plaza Datong or similar class

DAY 03

DATONG - HUITENG XILE GRASSLAND

Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

- Huiteng Xile - The name means "cold plateau" in Mongolian. The grassland is located in the southern part of Ulanqab and is dotted with 99 natural lakes, earning it the nickname "Ninety-nine Springs." The landscape combines the vastness and grandeur of pastoral grasslands with the beauty and elegance of southern China's water towns. From May to September, it's the peak travel season with flowers blooming, and it's one of the rare highland wetlands in China.
- Experience milking tea at a grassland ranch and wear a Mongolian robe for photos.
- The Royal Horse Feast Dinner.
