DAY 02

BEIJING

Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

- Tiananmen Square - Located along Beijing's central axis, it is the heart of the Republic.
- View the Great Hall of the People, the National Museum, and the Monument to the People's Heroes.
- Forbidden City - Also known as the Imperial Palace or the Purple Forbidden City, it was the imperial palace during the Ming and Qing Dynasties and remains a symbol of ancient China. Its grand architecture and countless artifacts are main attractions for visitors today.
- *Note: Since the Forbidden City has a daily visitor limit, the visiting date may be adjusted. If there are no tickets available during the Beijing trip, the Prince Gong's Mansion or Yonghe Lama Temple will be visited instead.
- Jingshan Park - A royal garden from the Ming and Qing Dynasties, located at the highest point of old Beijing, offering panoramic views of central Beijing and the Forbidden City.
- Wudaoying Hutong - A rising hub for the artistic and trendy crowd in Beijing. The alley is filled with various retro and original boutique shops, book bars, cafés, and unique restaurants.

Accommodation: Kaisheng Xingfeng Hotel or similar

DAY 03

BEIJING

Breakfast | Lunch

- Summer Palace - The summer residence and garden of the Qing emperors, also known as Qingyi Garden, is hailed as the "Royal Garden Museum".
- View of the Bird's Nest, Water Cube, Linglong Tower, and the Olympic "Nail Tower".
- Peaceful Candy Bureau - A nostalgic venue that blends dining, shopping, and retro settings, transporting visitors back to 1990s Beijing.
- Wangfujing Street - One of Beijing's old shopping districts, featuring large shopping malls, making it a popular spot for shopping and tasting local delicacies.

Accommodation: Kaisheng Xingfeng Hotel or similar

DAY 04

BEIJING

Breakfast | Lunch

- Temple of Heaven - A famous ancient structure used by Ming and Qing emperors for prayers and rituals, especially for praying for good harvests.
- Qianmen Street - Located to the south of Beijing's city center, it has long been known for its commercial activity. The street features old architecture with traditional signage, archways, and red lanterns, capturing the essence of old Beijing. (Includes tasting Beijing's "local coffee" - Old Beijing Bean Juice)
- PAGE ONE Bookstore - One of Beijing's most beautiful and trendy bookstores, housed in a three-story Baroque-style building with soft lighting, creating a striking visual impact.
- Xianyu Kou Food Street - A street full of long-established restaurants, with traditional signboards and decorations reflecting Beijing's historical and cultural charm.

Accommodation: Kaisheng Xingfeng Hotel or similar

DAY 05

BEIJING - CHENGDE

Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

- Chengde Summer Resort - A place where Qing emperors spent their summers, conducting political affairs and seeking respite. It is also referred to as the Chengde Palace or Rehe Palace.
- Putuo Zongcheng Temple - Built in the style of the Potala Palace, it is commonly known as the "Little Potala Palace". (View the temple from the outside)

Accommodation: Chengde Shenghua Grand Hotel or similar

DAY 06

CHENGDE - MIYUN

Breakfast | Lunch

- Gubei Water Town - A reconstructed ancient town built on the site of an old village, known for its stunning nightscape, where the town appears dreamlike under the stars and lights. The night view of Gubei Water Town is truly exceptional. Strolling through the town at night, you can enjoy the Great Wall light show, as well as watch the drone sky lanterns.

Accommodation: Yongshun Inn or similar (Within the Gubei Scenic Area)

DAY 07

MIYUN - BEIJING

Breakfast | Lunch | Dinner

- Simatai Great Wall - The only section of the Great Wall that retains the original features from the Ming Dynasty, known for its steep, dense, and intricate design. (Includes cable car ride)
- Shougang Cultural Experience - Developed on the original site of the Shougang steelworks, it is China's first "new type cultural park" focused on industrial culture.
- Check out the Wukesong Night Beijing City.

Accommodation: Chunhuiyuan Hot Spring Resort or similar

DAY 08

BEIJING > SINGAPORE

Breakfast | Lunch

- Yandai Xiejie - A 200-meter-long traditional commercial street featuring cultural elements.
- Shichahai - A charming area in Beijing with artistic vibes, featuring traditional Beijing-style alleyways and courtyard houses.
- View of the Bell Tower and Drum Tower.
- Bid farewell to this beautiful country and transfer to the airport for your flight home.

REMARKS

1. A minimum of 10 people is required for the group departure, and a tour leader will be provided for groups of 20 or more.
2. If there are adjustments to the flight schedule or itinerary sequence, the arrangements confirmed by the airline and the local travel agency in China shall prevail.
3. LGE Travel is not responsible for compensation if attractions cannot be visited due to weather, natural disasters, government actions, or other uncontrollable factors. Alternative attractions may be arranged as replacements.
4. The tour guide will primarily provide explanations in Mandarin unless otherwise specified. Groups on different flights may be combined into one group.
5. In case of discrepancies between the Chinese and English itineraries, the Chinese version will take precedence.
6. All hotel ratings are based on local standards. Triple rooms in hotels typically provide a folding extra bed, which may have limited conditions; your understanding is appreciated.
